Patriot Spotlight

Robert Evans

1744—1848

New inductee Shannon Irby's Revolutionary Patriot is Robert Evans. He was born in 1744 in Cecil County, Maryland. It is believed that Robert's grandfather, John, immigrated to Philadelphia from Wales about 1695.

Robert Evans joined Captain Richard Steven's Company of Foot, 10th Virginia Continental Regiment commanded by Colonel Edward Stevens and Major Samuel Hawes on December 15, 1776 for 3 years. Muster rolls show that he served through at least March of 1778. He is believed to have fought at the battles of Brandywine and Germantown and is listed on the Valley Forge Park Alliance Muster Roll at being present at Valley Forge along with George Washington in the horrific winter of 1777/78.

In a letter to General George Washington dated May 15, 1777, Colonel Stevens reported that his regiment was inoculated for smallpox 12 days prior. It was one of the first regiments to be inoculated for smallpox.

At Brandywine, the 10th Virginia was part of General Nathaniel Greene's regiment. When General Washington ordered a retreat of American forces, he called on Greene's division to serve as the rear-guard during the retreat. The 10th Virginia Continentals was the last American regiment on the battlefield at Brandywine, providing cover fire for retreating troops. While the battle was a British victory, the 10th Virginia played a crucial role in saving the American army by allowing their retreat and the ability to fight another day. The regiment is said to have suffered heavy casualties at the Battle of Germantown and because of this, it had to be reorganized after the battle.

Per pay records, Robert rejoined the army in South Carolina in May of 1781 for 325 days until March of 1782 and received 20 Shillings of old South Carolina currency per day, which totaled 46 sterling. It is not known if he was among the soldiers who participated in and was ultimately captured by the British during the siege of Charleston.

Robert Evans was buried in Perry County, Alabama. His son Joseph erected a grave marker for Robert that reads as follows: "This monument is erected by Joseph Evans in memory to the following persons whose remains are now deposited in this family graveyard 1848. To Robert Evans, his father, who departed this life in the 104th year of his age." Yes, according to his gravestone, Robert Evans lived to be 104 years old.

His grave has been marked by the DAR.
