Color Guard Report – Randall Van Heyst

RANDALL VAN HEYST: Good evening, y'all. There's three events that I wanted to bring to everybody's attention. The first event is actually coming up next week. It is on the 16th of March. It is the DAR State Conference. DAR State Conference is being held up in Hyatt Regency at the D/FW Airport.

I think that same weekend is the James Lemmon grave marking. That's going to be down in Lancaster. That's actually what tonight's program is about, so we'll hear more on that here in a couple minutes.

The final thing I just want to get into y'all's minds, it's over a month away, but the 22nd of April is the Gainesville Medal of Honor Parade. If you have not received your Bronze Galvez Award, that is a chance to actually earn the Bronze Galvez Award. It is a national color guard event.

Michael Good, Bill Watts Presented David Jackson with the Viet Nam Veterans Medal

Program Presented by Bill Watts and Barbara Thomas on the History of the Lemmon Family and their contributions to the Revolutionary War effort, one of many being that James, as a young boy, was a messenger for General George Washington, "Uncle George."
